Report of the Superintendent of Schools

To the School Board and Citizens of Alton:

This is my twentieth annual report as superintendent of the Alton schools. During this time as in every other business, there have been ups and downs, but on the whole, high standards have been maintained. For the last twenty-five years, at least, the Alton schools have stood close to the top of the small school systems of the state. That has been the best advertisement the town of Alton has had. The kind of schools that Alton has maintained during these years is in good part responsible for the better conditions of Alton than most towns in the state during these years of depression. I understand that the tax collections have been close to 100 per cent. From every point of view the schools this year are better than ever before. The teaching force is as strong as any in the state, not excepting the city systems. This is due both to good planning and good fortune. Good planning in the sense that the school officials have used the appropriations given them to the best advantage, and to good fortune in the sense that the teachers, in devotion, cooperation, spirit, experience and training are exceptional. It is my understanding that the people of Alton would be unwilling that the standard of their schools should be lowered. On the other hand, the school officials are in perfect accord with the people that the budget shall represent the minimum of costs consistent with the high standards hitherto maintained.

STATISTICS FOR THE SCHOOL YEAR 1931-1932

Total registration, 246; 141 boys; 105 girls; average, 225; average attendance, 212; per cent of attendance, 94. Neither absent nor tardy, 12; cases of tardiness, 162. Tuition pupils in the high school for the whole or part of the year, 11. Pupils transported, 68. School Board visits by members, 15; by superintendent, 255; by citizens, 399. Six regular School Board meetings were held.

FINANCIAL CONDITIONS

We are living in distressing times when financial burdens for most of us are becoming hard to bear. Alton has been wise in being liberal toward her schools. Her growing children are her chief asset. We can leave out, defer, or postpone in many ways for the sake of economy, and all of us must be willing to share in a stiff economy program, but we cannot leave out of the school program any of the necessities of the best kind of education and make good with our children. They have the right of way. Good teachers, good text books, good tools in the way of supplies, good surroundings, good janitors, good opportunities for training head, hand and heart, and care for the first essentials of good health are absolutely necessary for our growing children and these we must supply if we parents go hungry. We cannot postpone the child's education for any length of time and make up for it later.

The School Board cut the budget $3,500 for the present school year and the appropriations recommended were voted at the annual meeting last March. The balance on hand July 1, 1932, as reported, included some over $1,000, which is a part of the insurance received for fire damages. It represents damaged furniture, books, supplies, etc., which have been used for the sake of economy but will need to be replaced next year. The School Board needs to have a balance large enough to carry through the summer on expenses in several directions.

I have worked a week on the Alton School Budget for 1933-1934 and the School Board has had two meetings to discuss items. We have decided to reduce the amount for schools $2,000 below what it was last year, and we understand that satisfies the finance committee. That means a reduction of $5,500 has been made in two years, or about 25 per cent. That means a drastic cut in every item of the budget, a postponement of some necessities, a shortage of all supplies, and very little, if anything, in the treasury at the end of the year. That will make the school tax approximately $7.70 on $1,000 of equalized valuation. It will do another thing—cut the Alton School District off from any further state aid as far as we can see at present.

The Alton School District paid Mr. Lester $1,626.59 for work last year. The remainder was paid by federal aid for agriculture. It looked for a time as if that would be cut out on federal economy plans. Mr. Lester's job calls for twelve months with many extra hours on agricultural projects and hothouse during four months.

ADJUSTMENTS

Some of the classes in the High School have been much larger than usual with increased attendance and the necessity of uniting classes and alternating years. The grade rooms in the main building are necessarily large with two grades to a room. The primary room has about 40, and the room for grades V and VI about 50, with larger attendance promised for next year. The call for economy makes it imperative to close the Mountain and Walker schools and transport the children. The majority of the the children from the Mountain can be left at the Bay school where the attendance is lower than usual this year.

HEALTH SUPERVISION

No school investment gives so large returns as the money used to promote health and prevent disease in our growing children. The attitude of the children toward health becomes increasingly important. Many children do poor work on account of bad teeth, poor hearing or eyesight, mal-nutrition of mal-adjustments. These defects we are trying to get remedied, with very good cooperation on the part of parents and interested friends of the children.

HOLIDAYS

New Hampshire has very few legal holidays for schools. It may be that the Legislature will define such holidays later. If we followed the requests of all of the parents, we should have no school on about ten holidays instead of four. The best time to memorialize a person or event is on the day and in the schools until such time as the community will be able to hold exercises for their children that will be better than the school gives. We can see how much money would be lost in a week of holidays by finding out how much it costs in Alton to run the schools for a week, unless there was purpose and direction behind the granting of the holiday. More than that, when a holiday comes in the middle of the week it breaks the continuity of the school work so that we lose much more than the day.

CONCLUSION

Faith in God, our Country, ourselves and our children is perhaps what is needed most during these days. The citizens of tomorrow, our children now, will have many more serious problems than any other generation. Our business in the main is to train them for the highest citizenship service.

I have a higher appreciation than ever before for the unusual devotion of the people of Alton to the public schools, and for the unusual service of those who are the direct workers, together with the spirit of appreciation shown by the pupils for the opportunities of education.

Respectfully submitted,

F. U. LANDMAN,

Alton, N. H., Feb. 25, 1933

Superintendent.

Headmaster's Report

To the Superintendent of Schools:

I herewith submit my sixth annual report as Headmaster of Alton High School.

PUPIL STATISTICS FOR THE SCHOOL YEAR 1932-1933

	Boys	Girls	Total
Seniors	9	5	14
Juniors	7	8	15
Sophomores	10	4	14
Freshmen	11	13	24
Special	2	1	3
	39	31	70

The registration of 70 pupils is the largest for several years.

Four of last year graduates entered post-secondary schools and are doing creditable work.

CURRICULA DISTRIBUTION

Agriculture	20
Home Economics	11
Academic	22
General	15
Special	3

Each of these courses prepares for post-secondary school work.

There are no so-called "snap" courses.

Conference with the Headmaster or Superintendent is very desirable for parents in the selection of courses of study.

There are many co-ordinated activities all of which point toward the training in citizenship.

Athletics. Playground supervision for all, baseball and basketball for both boys and girls. Passing work in three subjects is required to represent Alton High School with teams from other schools.

Agriculture. Comparative judging contests at Hopkinton Fair, Durham, and other places call for representatives from Alton High School. These contests judge cows, fruit, poultry, eggs, etc.

Two of our boys entered egg exhibits in the New Hampshire Poultry Growers' Egg and Chick Show at Concord, January 9-13, 1933. One of the boys won the Grand Sweepstakes Prize of 100 Rhode Island Red Chicks donated by the Cotton Mountain Farm at Wolfeboro. His was judged the best out of 100 dozen eggs exhibited in dozens by the several Agricultural Departments in the state. For the same dozen eggs he also received $3 in money, a gold medal, and three fine ribbons. The other boy received fourth place and received the award of 25 Leghorn Chicks.

The Poultry Judging Team won a beautiful silver cup last fall in winning first place in the Poultry Judging Contest at Durham.

The Hubbard Prize Committee awarded 50 chicks to each of two Alton High School boys February 20th.

Home Economics. This work ties up with the homes in the line of cooking, sewing, house planning and house building, and in many other ways.

Music. Orchestra and Glee Club training add to the class work in Music.

Platform Activities. Each High School pupil presents to the school one oratorical part during the year, public programs relative to Armistice and other days are given, one or two plays are presented yearly, a representative is sent to the Interscholastic Prize-speaking Contest at Durham, and the Future Farmer Prize-speaking Contest.

Scholastic. Representatives of the school take part in the Scholastic Contests sponsored by the State Department of Education at Plymouth annually. Alton pupils have made a creditable showing.

In all of these cooperative activities, Alton pupils have advertised their school well.

May I say in conclusion that a successful school year demands the cooperation of parents, teachers, school authorities and citizens. Alton High School is fortunate in having that cooperation for which I express my sincere thanks.

Respectfully submitted,

ORLANDO A. LESTER,

Headmaster.
